"LET us have peace!"

AND still we are groping in the dark.

Struck a pin here; the man who is nominated at Chicago will be elected.

THE convention may possibly hold over until next week.

Ex-Gov. JOHN WOOD, of Quincy, died yesterday, after a long illness, aged 82 years.

No Democratic convention could possibly create the profound sensation throughout the country that has been produced by the Republican gathering now in session at Chicago. The reason is obvious: everybody knows that this convention is making a president.

AFTER carefully reading everything we could get hold of concerning the Chicago convention, and interviewing all the farmers in town with reference to crop prospects, we have come to the conclusion that, no matter who is nominated, the people will have plenty to eat for the next twelve months, which is a great consolation among the general uncertainties of the political situation.

THE CONVENTION.

The continued delay in the work of the national convention is wearisome, and still the end seems a long way off. It is possible that a ballot may be reached late this evening, or to-night, but there is not much probability that the convention will conclude its labors before Monday or Tuesday. The action of the convention on the Illinois contest, was not a surprise, being foreshadowed by previous action of the convention, which seems to be dominated by one single idea—"anything to beat Grant." In the midst of all the clamor, however, the adherents of the great chieftain remain firm and unyielding, determined to nominate him if they can, but pledging their hearty and unanimous support to the nominee of the convention, whoever he may be. Whether Gen. Grant be selected for the standard-bearer or not, his supporters will have the satisfaction of knowing that they made for him a manly, vigorous fight, during which their zeal was not permitted to lead them into measures to be explained or apologized for afterwards.

THE PLATFORM.

After the convention gets through with the report of the committee on credentials to day, the next thing in order will be the report of the committee on resolutions. The following is a synopsis of the platform:

It rehearses great benefits of Republican rule to the country; has restored solidity to the national finances; lifted the credit of the country; has insured the prosperity of the future. It advocates popular education; adherence to the constitution; prohibition of the use of the public funds for sectarian schools; favors protection of American labor, commerce and industries; denounces polygamy; renews obligations of country to Union soldiers; opposes Chinese immigration, and suggests Congressional modification of existing treaties to remedy the evil; commands Hayes Administration; arraigns the Democratic party, and holds it to be the duty of Republicans to harmonize the whole country.

Hon. GEORGE SOROGGS, of Champagne, Ill., has resigned his position as United States Consul at Hamburg, on account of his ill-health. Secretary Evans in a letter to Mr. Soroggs, accepting his resignation, expresses regret, and speaks of his "efficiency and fidelity as a public officer."

100,000 Bushels of Corn Wanted by Linn & Soroggs, for which they will pay two cents a bushel more than the highest market price in merchandise, the corn to be delivered at D. B. Shellenbarger & Co.'s mill. [Nov. 18—d&wt]

AN INDESCRIPTIBLE SCENE.

A correspondent describing the opening of the Convention, says: "Viewed from the stage, the scene in the Convention hall previous to the opening of business this morning was one well calculated to produce a deep and vivid impression upon the beholder. Even if he were accustomed to the sight of large halls and immense assemblages of people he could not help but be overpowered by the magnitude of all his surroundings. Add to this a sense of the importance of the occasion and the weighty influence of the proceedings upon future history, together with a possibility of serious trouble arising, it is no wonder that even the most careless spectator should for a moment stop to marvel. The night of an audience actually numbering over 10,000 is but rarely seen anywhere on any occasion, and then usually out in the open air. It is but seldom, an audience composed of such a great number of distinguished men from every part of the country is to be seen. The sight of a large number of people assembled together is always an impressive one, but the thousands who gathered in the Convention hall to-day formed but a part of the scene, the effect being greatly increased by the form of the hall, the arrangement and shape of the galleries—comparable only to the Coliseum of ancient Rome—and the lavish display of neatly arranged flags and streamers in every part of the hall. It was, in point of fact, one of those scenes which even the most graphic pencil fails adequately to describe."

WHAT NEXT?

A petition has been presented in the Senate by Mr. Cameron, of Wisconsin, from "Rev. Theodore Augusta Schintler Bishop," claiming compensation for his prayers in behalf of the Union during the rebellion. He sets forth that he was in Wisconsin in the early years of the war, and that he managed to elude the draft till 1864, when he was compelled to go in the army or furnish a substitute. He went into the army, he says, "trusting in God and praying to Him to protect me, and to give me a good place in the army, and not to force the necessity upon me to kill a Southern brother in battle." He continues: "The good Lord heard and answered the prayer of the poor Bishop by bringing him providentially into Company H of the First Wisconsin Heavy Artillery, which was stationed at Fort Lyon, Va., to guard Washington, where I did not even see an enemy or a brother of the South to fight with, and so I had time, besides our usual martial duties, to give myself wholly into fasting and prayer; and here at Fort Lyon, in Virginia, it was that the poor Bishop of the forests and prairies of the Green Bay and Lake Superior and the Northern Pacific and the St. Paul railroads erected an altar to a covenant-keeping God, our Heavenly Father, who made a covenant with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and also with all of us, the United States Congress included, and our wives and children, and steadily prayed for about eight months." He says that from this time the dark clouds of war began to pass away, and he asks compensation for his services.

No matter how the Chicago Convention may decide the Illinois contest, the Chicago Times hits the nail squarely on the head when it says that the "inspiration of the bitter and malignant fight which has been forced upon the Chicago Convention comes from Illinois. A self-seeking faction of local politicians, with their nucleus in Chicago, incited by personal dislike of Mr. Logan, have inaugurated a struggle that is essentially disgraceful to themselves, and implicates in their disgrace the Commonwealth of Illinois." And so, also, of "all the senseless clatter raised by this band of local malcontents against a third term. There never was raised in this world a more impudent outcry of false pretense. It is not true that to men in Illinois, among men of any party name, this outcry has meant anything but a trick of factionists aiming to divide Illinois against itself, and thus sacrifice one of the most illustrious representatives of the party to the dislike of one of his conspicuous friends."

A correspondent writes from South Australia: "That hundreds of poor men, able and willing to work, should be brought out here, some to starve, is a shame both to our colonial powers and their agents at home. And this whole system of indiscriminate immigration is for no other purpose than to enhance the value of large quantities of city land belonging to rich owners, thus helping to make the very rich richer, and the poor poorer, and to build up an alarming amount of destitution which must eventually lead to taxation. Even while I am penning this there is a large meeting being called to consider the best means to be adopted to prevent the repetition of such scenes as have been witnessed in connection with the starving new chaps, many of whom have been wandering about from town to town for months past asking for food as every doer." The truth is the revival of trade here is dreadfully damaging to the Australian colonies."

A DISPATCH from Springfield states that Adjutant General Hillard will shortly issue a general order as to the distribution of the military fund for 1880. It amounts to $70,000, and three-fourths of this, $52,500 will be distributed at once to the several companies upon the basis of the number of men in each company. At the regular annual inspection in March the total number was 3,551 officers and men, which allows $9.29 each.

NO COOLER YET.

The Convention Just Getting to Work.

NO BALLOTING YET.

CHICAGO, 2 p. m.—Assembled at 11:45. Kansas contestants admitted. West Va. contestants admitted. This was upon motion to substitute minority report for majority report; yeas, 414; nays, 830. The contestants were Grant delegates and the roll call shows that many delegates voted entirely different upon this case from that of previous cases. Maine voted against the contestants. There is no indication that a ballot will be reached before Monday.

The minority report in favor of admitting the contestants from Utah, in place of the setting members has been adopted.

Report of committee on rules and order of business taken up. Rules of house of representatives recommended that when the vote of a state is cast for a candidate it cannot be changed except in case of numerical error, not intended to be allowed for presentation of each candidate for president.

Sharpe moved that convention proceed immediately to ballot for President of the United States. Chairman rules Sharpe's motion in order.

Debate on Sharpe's motion to proceed to presentation of candidates for president is now going on. B. K. H.

Special dispatch to the REPUBLICAN.

CHICAGO, June 4, 1:30 p. m.—Convention adjourned to 7 p. m. It had just fairly entered upon considering the report of the committee on credentials. Logan won a victory in expunging from the majority report all matter with reference to contests of Illinois delegates at large. No ballot to-day. No roll call to-day. The Grant forces seem to be unyielding. B. K. H.

Special Dispatch to the REPUBLICAN.

CHICAGO, Ill., June 5, 10:07 a. m.—The Illinois contestants were admitted by a vote of 384 to 356; Ohio voted 28 yeas, 16 nays; Vermont 6 yeas, 4 nays. At 2:30 a. m. the Convention adjourned to 11 to-day. Not much more time will be consumed in adopting the majority report of the Committee on Credentials, and balloting will commence to-day. A scene of the wildest confusion reigned last night, the Convention giving way to the galleries, in which the Concentrated joined, when Storrs alluded to Grant and Blaine. The feeling is so intense between the Grant and Blaine factions as to indicate the impossibility of nominating either, and it is now more than probable that balloting will be protracted to great length. Both parties will die hard, and neither party will yield until all hope is gone. Do not believe the Convention will adjourn to-day. B. K. H.

Press Bulletin.

CHICAGO, June 4, 7:35 p. m.—Conger moved that delegates admitted by the report of the committee be assigned seats in the delegations.

7:50.—Ben Harrison moved that half an hour be given to contestants to present their cases to the convention.

7:43.—Conkling speaking against limitation named.

7:44.—Gen. Harrison moved that 20 minutes be allowed to contestants and sitting members.

8 p. m.—Harrison's motion as amended by him to allow twenty minutes on each side for consideration of case of sitting members and contestants from Alabama, was passed unanimously. Conger now speaking in favor of majority report. Chairman of Alabama delegation speaking in favor of minority report.

8:25.—Gen. Bateman, of Ohio, now speaking. It was moved that the minority report be substituted for the majority report in the Alabama case. Roll of states being called.

9:05.—Resolution substituting minority for majority report was lost.

9:18.—The vote stood 306 for the minority report and 449 against. The majority report was then adopted. It was moved that half an hour be allowed contestants and sitting members from Illinois.

9:50.—Logan now speaking on motion of allowing time to contestants from Illinois.

9:53.—Logan still speaking, charged that California delegates were not allowed to receive their credentials till they would promise to vote for Blaine. Delegates were instructed to "vote for Blaine, first, last, and all the time." Tremendous applause; delegates and spectators rise to their feet and cheer for Blaine.

10:22.—The question is now on the adoption of the majority report, Conger speaking in favor.

10:45.—Gen. Baum now speaking in favor of sitting delegates from Illinois. He denounces as revolutionary any efforts to unseat sitting delegates; excitement and cheering.

11:47.—Anthony, one of the Illinois contestants, now addressing the convention.

11:37.—Emery A. Storrs now speaking in favor of minority report.

12 p. m.—Storrs just finished his speech in which he says the followers of Blaine are quietly reposing beneath sunny skies, but to-morrow will wake to find themselves followers of the silent soldier—have slept by their camp fires and are awake to the requirements of the hour; intense excitement, cheers, hats, umbrellas raised for five minutes amidst the most intense excitement.

12:08 a. m.—47 New York delegates cheering for Grant; Conkling in their midst; Logan mounted on a chair swinging his arms furiously. New York delegates singing "Marching Through Georgia." Now singing "Rally round the flag."

12:15.—The convention a howling mob with no prospect of abatement.

1 a. m.—Some one called for cheers for Blaine, and the convention is now one cheering mass, the different states rising and swinging their banners. The chairman is rapping vigorously for order, but without avail.

1:25.—The chair has finally succeeded in restoring order. Sherman's name being mentioned there was great cheering, which continued for some time.

1:34.—A motion to adjourn lost, and the question being put a second time was lost.

1:50.—The roll of states called on adjournment, and motion lost.

1:52.—A motion made to substitute minority report for majority report on Illinois contested districts. A roll call was demanded on this, which resulted yeas 353, nays 357.

A motion to adopt the minority report of the committee on credentials relative to the West Virginia case was carried, seating the two contestants.

The Utah contest was then taken up. CHICAGO, June 5, 12 m.—The convention was called to order at 11:45; the Illinois contestants being in their seats.

The question of the Kansas contestants was taken up, and 40 minutes given to discussion.

Conkling authorizes the denial of the report in circulation that he has a letter from Grant asking him to consult with Logan, and if they deem proper to withdraw his name as a candidate for the nomination.

The roll call on acceptance of the majority report on the Kansas contest, resulted yeas 476, nays 184. The report admits the ten delegates to seats, and allows them six votes.

The West Virginia contest was then taken up.

TOLDO, June 5.—Wheat $1.16 cash; $1.02 July. Corn 42c cash; 42½ June.

CHICAGO, June 4.—The proceedings of the national convention to-day have for the most part been rather uninteresting, the debates having dragged heavily and interest being relaxed, as indicated by considerable confusion on the floor among the delegates themselves and in the body of the audience. The exceptions have been the two or three lively passages between Conger and Logan and Haymond. Complicated parliamentary questions and points of order came frequently before the convention, and were disentangled with consummate skill and patience by the chair, whose rulings in every case met with expressions of satisfaction from the audience and ready acquiescence from delegates throughout the proceedings. The galleries were crowded by occupants who indicated such interest in the proceedings and displayed so much appreciation of the varying phases and the merits of the debate that the Chair was several times constrained to declare that if the marks of approbation and disapproval were not restrained business would be so delayed that the galleries would have to be cleared to allow continuation of business. Applause was particularly objected to by the speaker when the speakers were limited to time and were obliged to keep their remarks to the minimum on account of noise. When Kentucky was called to vote on the Alabama case, and the Chairman having announced twenty-four votes in favor of the sitting delegates, four delegates rose, as on previous occasions, and recorded their votes in the negative. The scenes of the previous day were repeated, and plaudits were more marked. The vote on the unit rule was not generally regarded as a very decisive test of the relative strength of the candidates, but the opponents of Grant generally consider it to show a slight falling off in his support, while his friends declare it has no significance whatever.

The most exciting incident that occurred during to-night's session was during discussion on the resolution to limit the time for presenting the Illinois case to one hour. Gen. Logan spoke against the resolution, and remarking that the purpose in admitting credentials was to secure votes and defeat the old veteran, General Grant. The reference to General Grant brought out deafening cheers, which were repeated, accompanied by the waving of hats, handkerchiefs and clapping of hands, which lasted some minutes, but this handsome demonstration was exceeded largely in a few moments, when Poley, chairman of the California delegation, in reply to a question by Gen. Logan, said that his delegation was instructed to vote, first, last, and all the time, for James G. Blaine. The name had hardly been pronounced when it seemed that almost the entire audience in the galleries and on the floor sprang to their feet and cheered in the most vociferous manner. Hats were flung into the air again and again and handkerchiefs were waved in the wildest manner. This animated scene lasted fully three minutes. It was the first since the convention met that the name of Blaine had been mentioned.

QUINCY, ILL., June 4.—Ex Governor John Wood, the founder of Quincy, died at 10:50 this morning, in his 82d year. He was conscious to the last moment. The funeral will take place early next week.

But little can be gathered from the democratic state conventions which have been held the present week as to the strength which they have furnished any particular democratic candidate for the presidency. It is claimed by the opponents of Tilden that he has not held his own, which, to say the least, is exceedingly doubtful. He has a way of holding good hands without showing them until he is ready, and then he usually takes in the pot. But it is not known what other candidates have gained, as few of the delegates elected have given any sign which might indicate their preference. This is favorable to Tilden, as he will be strong at Cincinnati among uncommitted delegates. The democracy is just now holding its breath through fear of Gen. Grant's nomination, which accounts for the silence of delegates.—Globe-Dem.

THE READY FAMILY SOAP MAKER: LEWIS' LYE

93 PER CENT. PURE.
(Patented.)
FINELY POWDERED.
HIGHLY PERFUMED.

The strongest and purest Lye made. Will cleanse the most stubborn stains. Has been used by the best washer-women in the West for many years.

The following are some of the advantages claimed by using Lewis' 93 Per Cent. Powdered Lye:

First. It is packed in iron cans with the lid tightly sealed, so that the lye does not leak out, and the contents are preserved from all contamination.

Second. It being a fine powder, it can be carried in the pocket, and used at once, and it does not soil the hands, being always ready for use.

Third. A teaspoonful or more can be used in washing clothes, and it will cleanse them better than any other lye,
and it will not soil the hands.

Fourth. One can of this Lye will cleanse more than any other lye, and it will not soil the hands.

Fifth. One can of this Lye will cleanse more than any other lye, and it will not soil the hands.
